We have to call couples to be active citizens of Retrouvaille and producers of a marriage-supportive culture, and not just ask them to help out because the current leaders can't do it

Start selecting your workshops here. Select for both husband and wife if applicable. Also if you don't select one session don't worry if it says none selected on this session your other sessions will still be valid. No save button needed just use the back arrow or exit the website. It will automatically save you results. You can go in and look again to make sure.
